Hi Jeaneanne,

Per our discussion today, attached are the relevant documents concerning the issues raised by OECA. The chart likely will be an easier read but does not include every issue raised in JT's paper. Matt noted that absent from the chart are the simple negligence issue (presumably because it would require a State constitutional amendment rather than a statutory amendment) and the harm issue.

We will schedule up a time to brief you on these issues in more detail early next week and in advance of the Wednesday meeting. Thanks!
